FILL ME IN

Words and Music by
MARK HILL and CRAIG DAVID

$\text{♩} = 132$

The first system of musical notation for 'Fill Me In' consists of a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The vocal line begins with a whole rest, followed by a half note G4, a half note A4, and a half note B4. The piano accompaniment features a steady eighth-note bass line in the left hand and a melody in the right hand that includes a half note G4, a half note A4, and a half note B4, with a fermata over the final B4.

The second system of musical notation continues the song. The vocal line has a whole rest, followed by a half note G4, a half note A4, and a half note B4. The piano accompaniment continues with the same eighth-note bass line and melody. The lyrics 'I've got some- thin' to say, ——— some- thin' to say. ———' are written below the vocal line.

The third system of musical notation concludes the piece. The vocal line has a whole rest, followed by a half note G4, a half note A4, and a half note B4. The piano accompaniment continues with the same eighth-note bass line and melody. The lyrics 'Al - right. ——— (Can you' are written below the vocal line.

Verse 2:

Whenever the coast was clear and she'd ask me to come out
I'd say "Hey girl, come on right around"
So she knocked at the door
I was standing with the keys in my hand to the four-by-four
Jumped in my ride checking that nobody saw
The club we went in, we got down
Bounce, bounce to the rhythm
Saw it was early morning
Thought we'd better be leaving
So I gave you my jacket for you to hold
Told you to wear it cos you felt cold
I mean me and her didn't mean to break the rules
I wasn't trying to play your mum and dad for fools
We were just doing things young people in love do
Parents trying to find out what we were up to.

Saying why can't you keep your promises no more
Saying you'll be home by twelve, come strolling in at four
Out with your girls, but leaving with the boy next door
Can you fill me in? (fill me in)
Wearing a jacket who's property
Said you'd been queuing for a taxi
But you left all your money on the TV (you tell 'em, babe)
Can you fill me in? (can you fill me in).
